A FIGHT FOR A MAJORITY.

REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF ILLINOIS LEGISLATURE TO EXERCISE POWER.

Republican Members of the Senate Seriously Contemplate Withdrawal from the Joint Ballot Rule and Refusing to Vote Until Democrats Surrender.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 17.—[Special.]—The Republican Senate contemplated their first Democratic Legislature, elected from districts and Judges Circuits, out of the old districts and voted six opponents. Such Republicans, which shifts the political complexion of the Legislature, and again the Democrats have two majority on joint ballot, giving the two control by the counting of [illegible] by the Republican Senate Minority. The thing was done without any effort to take the initiative of the party about proceeding. The Republican Caucus has been talking evidence to the case of a majority, and to the majority report, without opposition, that committee, the previous question, which, coming of all debate, and the vote taken. The minority members of the committee recognize that they have given until tomorrow morning to prepare a report, but this promises nothing. Senator Hammond and Senator McDonald, the minority members, intend to [illegible] Senator Bailey of this city, Chairman of the committee and originator of the measure, vehemently declared that this issue is being referred to the joint convention than any other measure, and the only opportunity of the Republicans to say a word into the record. Senator Bailey was urged to make a speech, but declined, although only quick who. This may be true yet.

THE WORK OF STARVING OFF MEMBERS.

In a caucus tonight a test majority of Democratic Senators were in favor of adjourning at least four Democratic members, who are expected to be elected to the Legislature, and against this proposition have two majority on joint ballot, enough for the necessary of [illegible] (Dem.) by the Republican Senate Minority. The thing was done without any effort to take the initiative of the party about proceeding. The Republican Caucus did not decide to use every power to stop the proceedings of the Democrats, but it was generally understood that they would not be allowed to pass any measure. This decision was reached after a long discussion of the question of whether it was best to make the fight on the Democrats or on a point of order. Senator Bailey was urged to make a speech, but declined, although only quick who. This may be true yet.

The International Union of Bricklayers and Masons, who have been holding a convention in Washington, D. C., adopted resolutions making indirectly that the organization did not affiliate with Secretion, Abolitionism, Communism, or other societies opposed to maintaining the laws of our Government.

Chief Justice Aikens of Indianapolis (Indiana) decided that Lewis Horn Defendant of Indiana was not legally elected, and therefore granted the injunction asked for Gaston, North, concerning Governor. Town acting as President of the Senate in taking part in the joint resolutions for the election of United States Senator. The Supreme will carry the matter into the State Supreme Court at once.

Congressman Ingersoll yesterday introduced a bill in the House "to prevent American vessels engaged in commerce, and employed in the service of the ports of British North America." The President is authorized to prohibit vessels leaving the British flag and coming from such ports from entering the ports of the United States or from exercising such privileges therein as he may define.

The Saigonese Government is reported to have issued an order forbidding the export of the cereals. The assigned reason is that the condition of the crops is unsatisfactory. As this is not precisely the time of year when such a discovery would be most likely to be made, it is not unfair to infer that there may be some other motive for issuance of the order. That motive would scarcely be other than a wish to keep supplies at home to strengthen the internal situation in the event of such a struggle as many fear will come with the coming spring.

Chicago operators and vessels chartered last Saturday evening 12,000,000 bushels of wheat, 1,000,000 bushels of corn, 200,000 bushels of oats, 100,000 bushels of rye, and 50,000 bushels of barley; total, 13,350,000 bushels of all kinds of grain, against 17,170,000 bushels a year ago. For the entire year the Secretary of the Chicago Board of Trade shows the receipts of grain in the United States and Canada at 53,000,000 bushels of wheat, 75,000,000 bushels of corn, 4,000,000 bushels of rye, and 5,000,000 bushels of barley. These figures are another from the corresponding week a week ago to 900, 000 bushels of wheat and larger by 200,000 bushels of corn. The visible supply of wheat for the corresponding week a year ago amounted 200,000 bushels.

Hon. Schuyler Colfax has contributed from his private purse the sum of $500 to help along the fund which the New York Schlesinger proposed to raise for the erection of a monument over the remains of the great soldier-statesman, to mention that over this worthy contribution will have an effect in stimulating New York City to do anything deserving. The achievements of that city, having originated in their zeal to bury the General in face of their public party and to subscribe the speculative value of adjacent property, have been all that can be expected of them. Friends of the memory in Wall street, while living, the town are of no value unless we cannot and he made out of them. But Schuyler and associated could hardly go further than. Some believe that the country have contributed to release the humiliating spectacle of the widow of an eminent man having to owe subsistence from over-profited to help build him a monument, and that after the achievements of the metropolis had agreed to raise the money as one of the conditions of having the remains buried among them.

In his speech in the Senate last week Senator Sherman referred in the unfavorable way to the "aggregate capitalization" of the railroads of the country, which he estimated at "$3,000,000,000, while the actual cost of the roads and equipment for transportation is $1,000,000,000," in a startling manner, and would have incredible but for the "unquestionable proof that has been furnished to State and Congressional committees." One of the railroads employed to produce these results," Senator Sherman says, "is the Chicago & Rock Island road, in the construction of which Congress granted to the State of Illinois a portion of every alternate section of land for six sections in width on each side of the road, to aid in its construction. The road was built, and the lands were sold by the State, and the proceeds were applied to the purposes for which the grant was made. The road is now in operation, and has been for many years, and yet it pays no dividends to its stockholders, and its bonds are a heavy charge upon the earnings of the road. The road has been managed with great ability, and its business is large and profitable, but the capitalization is enormous, and the public are taxed to pay the interest on the bonds and dividends on the stock." Senator Sherman says that the citizens of the whole country have a right to complain of the action of railroad companies in charging such enormous rates for the transportation of persons and property, and that the people of the whole country are interested in the question of railroad management, which is in fact largely legislation. This class of affairs needs to be treated above what not as one side for the striking part and another for the greatly rich. Powerful men provide the vitality of her laws and Government by the most ring combinations, and more than the people to oppose the gains millions and to avoid suffering by forming retributory for support of a great community of life is an offense against law and authority—a crime against the public as well as against the individuals directly affected by the wrong and extortion.

From the dissolution of National banking laws are three classes of cities in the United States—first, important and numerous, second, smaller, third, all other cities or villages in which there are National banks. New York is and always has been the only city of the first class in the entire country. The cities of the second class are Albany, Baltimore, Boston, Cincinnati, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Louisville, Milwaukee, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, St. Louis, San Francisco, and Washington. It is proposed by a bill which passed the House Dec. 12 to call in the second class (at Atlanta, Georgia, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Kansas City, and Omaha). These are cities best posted and surrounded to the distinction and privileges of reserve cities, and the Supreme evidently intended by the foregoing provisions of the passage of the bill, but not without the important amendments. It is for the interest of every one of these six cities, as well as of Chicago itself, that the city should be classed by law as "depositary" and reserve."

A few words will explain the practical difficulties proposed in this depositary classification. The banks in cities of the first and second class are either required to keep a reserve of 25 per cent of their deposits as a cash reserve, while those in the third class are required to keep only 15 per cent of their deposits locked up. The advantage to the first-class banks in effect by allowing one half of their reserves to be kept in banks of the second or third class. For example, the Fourth National of Chicago held today not far from thirty millions of money, the other banks, and in the extent of 75 per cent thereof, or nearly twenty-two millions, was required to keep only 15 per cent of their deposits locked up. The advantage to the first-class banks in effect by allowing one-

THE ANARCHIST'S BRIDE.

Sympathy Extended About the Sub-State Community as Yet.

A Telegram from Pittsburg Asking That the Latter Is Not Held Responsible for the Acts of One Fanatic Has Influenced Many Wealthy Residents Thereto and Charity Has Profits.

In The Sunday issue of this paper appeared a story that got out with the graduation of the Anna Dickinson type, and which there would not be many grounds present day to conduct to pay as much regard to the proprieties as that question under the circumstances. The subject was dreadful for a private family to take and they seemed to have the wording just as good as possible. The girl with whom the incident would take place this week, but would not say definitely. The lad arrived the daughter to postpone the wedding for a little while, at least till the excitement died down. The parents and the daughter were greatly grieved at the publication of the story, but it was impossible to keep it out of print after it had gained currency in the form it did. Nothing can yet be learned definitely about the groom, who is said to be a man of good family and connections, and formerly occupied a high position in the community. He is said to have left Pittsburg for Chicago, and it is supposed that he will return to Pittsburg with his bride. It is not known whether he is an anarchist or not, but it is believed that he is not. The bride's parents are very much grieved at the publicity given to the affair, and the fact that it has been made the occasion of so much unfavorable comment. They have been very much annoyed by reporters, and have refused to talk for publication. They have also been annoyed by letters of sympathy from persons who have read the story in the papers, and who have written to express their sympathy with the bride's parents in the affliction which has overtaken them. Many letters have been received containing money, which the parents have refused to accept. Many of the letters have been addressed to the bride herself, and she has received a number of them. She has refused to read any of them, and has returned them unopened to the writers. The parents have also refused to receive any of the money which has been sent to them. New York exchange was quoted as follows yesterday: Chicago par, Boston, regular par, St. Louis, 75c premium.

Bradstreet's continues to report the general monetary situation in New York exactly as it has been for several weeks. The principal features are still the ease with which loans are made, the abundance of money and the low rates. Call loans on stock and bond collaterals are reported at 1@2 per cent, and time loans at 2@3 per cent. Commercial paper is in good demand at 4@5 per cent for the best names, and 6@7 per cent for others. Bradstreet's says that there is a disposition to regard the present monetary situation as a permanent one, and that the future will take care of itself. Bradstreet's says that the Treasury has been paying out money rapidly, and that the banks have received considerable from the West and South, but that the interior movement of currency has not yet begun in earnest. The Treasury has paid out $3,000,000 in bonds, and $1,000,000 in silver certificates, and has received $1,000,000 in customs and $1,000,000 in internal revenue. The Treasury has also received $1,000,000 in gold from Europe, and has $1,000,000 more on the way. The Treasury has also received $1,000,000 in gold from Europe, and has $1,000,000 more on the way. The Treasury has also received $1,000,000 in gold from Europe, and has $1,000,000 more on the way.
